Running up through my head
Running up through my head
Running up through my head...
Thoughts keeps running through my head
Running through my head
Thoughts keeps running through my head
Running through my head
Thoughts keeps running through my head
Running through my head
Running through my head
Thoughts keeps running through my head
Now tell me the definition of a politician
I ain't gon vote for you, and no I ain't singing no petition
You give us debt and you call it a college tuition
We break our necks for these checks you take out...
Bitch, ain't nothing but a bitch, if you f*ck uncle sam, then you probably a snitch
If I ruled the world, well my rules are sh*t,
I probably wrote a constitution...
I just ain't with it
I just don't get it, how we getting broke up
But they boost up the price of living
Just to drive a hundred civic Cause im a different soul
A different low
With my pistol for
My presence is evident
