[Verse 1]

Yo, I welcome New York to an extravagant event

And Blo and J30 got the Franchise bent

Low under tint, snakes, hustlers, and pimps

And I'm the main event at any event

Shit, I pop shit like "No he didn't"

Shoulda seen nigga's face when I four-five-six

Terror Keys parked longside of MPV's

Run the, light with me, part empty three

Yo quickest lyrical draw, that'd be me

A jewel to the hustler, stack your cheese

On the rise, on the come up, use less cut

Customers complain, you just fuck

Yo rackin your brain with that bullshit game

And beatin on yo' bitch don't ease the pain

OK, back the facts like gats and cracks

And I'm hot fuckin quarters with my people mack
