[Asher Roth:]

My aura takes the form of the aurora borealis
Or a floral pattern, more or less a forest to your salad
The neural path I've traveled has immediate reaction Can't you see that I am beaming? I'll be leaving in a second Sipping magic from a chalice, detached from the distractions
At last, I can relax, looking past all of the action
A fraction or a fragment of me actually is present
The rest of me is heavenly, the seventh house's zenith
Yes, the fence intimidates, it's meant to keep you out (But)
Let your senses resonate and leap it in a bound (Cause)
Freedom isn't found inside a visa or a crown
And even the voice of reason couldn't speak it out loud
(But)
Mortals are immortal when their soul has been imported
To a source that is more sovereign, important to the whole (Whole)
This is the warmest moment of a poet turned heroic
As he slowly comes to focus, go ahead and watch me glow

[Charles Hamilton:]

Rey Mysterio flow, stayin' clear Of makeup-smear'd hatin' queers, makin' clear this is spiritual Though a spirit you owe, church final
Your funeral in an arena, you searchin' for fire
Or titles, or tidal waves
Tie the game like a shot from outside when it's 95 to 98
To throw slid into you left-side broke (Niggas!) (Beam!)
Boa constrictor, chokin' (Niggas!), the grown man (Beam!)
Pawns mean, your controllers get broken (Nigga!)

(Beam!)
Anarchy in the Ford, you need to focus (Nigga!)
(Beam!)
Love, I get none, like sayin' no to niggas Hamiltonian's loneliness, so I hold my (Beams!)
(Niggas!)
I logged on to see a c-section, a gross display Sleep never, and Roloids, deep lessons won't go away
I keep pressin' like my phone is afraid To be the star, so I end it and pound it, see what the code can say

[Lupe Fiasco:]
Calling all the good rappers, had to get my crew together
Fire like the fire flower, flyer than the super feather Superman with two propellers, enter that, ninja rap
You can call it Super Shredder, boss scene, Ross theme
You can call it super better, new to this, Ludacris Foolishness, Lu been doin' this since super letters
So I can't spell and can't mail it out
If you can't feel, it's too full, you can't peel it out Showboatin' at the show, but you can't sell it out I'm on the sea shepherd deck, helpin' the whales out
All my egos in the mirror, checkin' themselves out Tweeters in the trunk, helpin' the twelves out
The speakers on bump, the rappers on acne This track is what would happen if the rastas meet the mathletes
Yes, sir, then the Chess Club got dressed up
And went and took all the bitches of the athletes

[Mikey Rocks:]
Big up to what's been up, nigga Pin-ups from when we clicked up and posed for these pictures, good
And the kids connected up, and they clicked snap Hollerin', "Yeah, we weighed on the iPhone scale app!" Without fail, the best to ever do it just will Haven't done it all, but we got copy wheelwell, though
But it ain't no sweat, I got a whole outfit
And a new fitted cap that I ain't wore out yet (Check, check, check) And I'm beamin'
Yeah, and I seen it, like a twenty-seven inch Zenith Projected widescreen, now they got it 3D
Now we NBA'd up from development leagues

[Chuck English:]
Ay, yo, they pale in comparison to stories we tell Man, he see me on the hovercraft and he got a sail Bubble-ass Brenda, stacked up in the window

Of whatever 'Lac truck pick her up, retail Nigga, what? It just hit me like a Mack truck semi On my last trip to Sydney in the Sheraton lobby Grab my coattails and get a grip (Grab 'em) You want the truth? Well, the truth is This is it, pointin' out the differences
This is exquisite shit, riveting, isn't it?
Lizard king loafers on swole when I'm kickin' it Joe, the live nigga, real rig-a-marole
You a handshake away, and them fingers is cold

[Blu:]

Touch art, lush heart, brush my niggas' shoulder off Now that blessed soldier know that protocol, show me y'all's
Maybe not, play me not, say we not remote at all Roger that, scholars back, solid black, go God Gobble Gats, go hard, condom snapped, so raw Pompous asshole, flash flow, turn your soul on So gone, strode strong through your lawn 'til the dawn Tell you mom, name another real as John, kill a song 'Cause when you feel it, and it make yo' ass chill and calm Payin' more than just attention for that glass I'm sippin' on Dog, I would travel half the globe to kiss a broad Kiddin', ma? Scratch backs, bringin' out them kitten paws
And pull a bottle out that cabinet while that kitchen's warm
Back to attendin' business, do not lay them digits wrong Dippin' all gangsta, but a renegade, no Crip or John
This is Blu, shit is true, pyramid, period

[Diggy Simmons:]

I know what you're thinkin', thinkin' I do not belong Tell me Diggy ain't beamin', 'course I should be on this song
Yeah, I'm a child of God, my reflection is on Yeah, I'm only 15 and, but my sixteens is strong Didn't want me to shine, now we sharin' the stage
Twice as good as you rhyme, only half of your age
So the remains, and it ain't even how That Verizon flow, are you hearin' me now?
Word to Wasalu, they was sayin' my future was dark
I had the fame, but my name was missin' the art
So I'm drawin' the line, and I'm crossin' the Ts
And I'm dottin' my Is, barely catchin' my Zs
But I'll be good by the mornin', on my global grind like JoJo

They be lookin' at what I'm puttin' on and, so fly, so fresh at the SoHo Most niggas don't know though, they can catch me on the first flight
Been workin' on a new mixtape, I got a call from Lupe
But I did it for the love, no check, mate

[Dosage:]

When people said I couldn't, I wouldn't, I made 'em believers
I come from the school of hard knocks and overachievers
From the City of Brotherly Love, they sayin' we need you
To be the voice of the people and go against all this evil
Some people hate it, but I made it, so I'm never concerned
About what they be talkin' about, I've lived and I've learned
With my dream and my drive, I determined my turn In this business, because I'm in control, meetin' adjourned
I said, "It's Third Degree, y'all heard of we?
I'm Dosage, have you heard of me?"
I come from the bottom, so the top where I deserve to be Where people say it doesn't matter to be much I was on the Steppin' Lasers tour, and man, I shooked it up
That was random, but so what? Life is a war, better load up
If you against me, come correct, I am the bomb, watch me blow up (Boom!)
Right before your eyes, forget about the dividends
I just want to say I remember when

[B.o.B:]

Well, it's B to the O, O to the B
You know it's the flow, you know that it's me, I flow to this beat
As easy as goin' to the store and holdin' receipts
And foldin' 'em neat, I'm focused as focused can be You know I got phobias, please, approach me with peace
Or things could get heated and you'll get ferociously beat Speakin' of ferociously beat, you know that girl 'Nique?
You know she's a freak, but anyway, back to what I'm supposed to be Sayin' all over this beat, you know that we Gs

You see all the crowns, you know that we kings, you notice the rings
Everywhere we go, we roll with the team, yeah
And you know that we lasers, so you know that we
beam
It's the All City varsity, hard-headed squad
We played y'all spades, y'all handle y'all cards
But we ain't all odds, we just blaze, man Y'all playin' checkers in this game, this is chess, y'all pawns
