I remember the time
When there was no existence
Was a missing ingredience
Without me for you
I used to drink that frozen rain
Dripping from your eyes
No more cries, no more lies
Without me for you

Spit on me
I don't care anymore
Spit on me
Spit on me

The void in my days
Was so vivid and warm
And the nights were wasted and worn
Without you for me
I took your heart
And danced with my queen
We danced on the lines in between
You were mine

Spit on me
I don't care anymore
Spit on me
Spit on me
