"The Rain"

[Chorus]

And there you are standing all alone, in the rain like oh
no

And you don't know where to go, cause you're in the rain

And there you are standing all alone, in the rain like oh
no

And you don't know where to go, but you're in the rain

And it keeps pouring down on you, the suns gone and
your feelin' blue

And it's pouring down on you, but you keep on movin'
through

And it's pouring down on you, the suns gone and your
feelin' blue

And there you are standing all alone in the rain

And the rain comes pouring down
Yeah yeah

[Verse 1]

By no means am I livin' in vain, but I Sit in the rain, I'm addicted to pain yeah
It feels good when it enters my veins
And every time I wake up it's a similar day Cause I'm stuck in my ways
And everywhere I go the suns runnin' away
But this is what I get for my troublesome ways
So here comes the rain to fuck up my parade
I ain't got nothing to say

[Chorus]

And there you are standing all alone, in the rain like oh
no

And you don't know where to go, cause you're in the
rain

And there you are standing all alone, in the rain like oh
no

And you don't know where to go, but you're in the rain

And it keeps pouring down on you, the suns gone and
your feelin' blue
And it's pouring down on you, but you keep on movin'
through
And it's pouring down on you, the suns gone and your
feelin' blue
And there you are standing all alone in the rain

And the rain comes pouring down
Yeah yeah

[Verse 2]

And as I fall into the rain
Swimmin' through the flood, tryin' to unclog the drain
If you tryin' to find me my address is Memory Lane Livin' amongst the darkness, so the dungeon is my domain
Higher than the mountains feeling lower than the plains
But this is what I chose so how can I complain?
And tryin' to find some brain is, really not my aim Stuck inside my head, so it replays again

[Chorus]

And there you are standing all alone, in the rain like oh
no
And you don't know where to go, cause you're in the
rain
And there you are standing all alone, in the rain like oh
no
And you don't know where to go, but you're in the rain

And it keeps pouring down on you, the suns gone and
your feelin' blue
And it's pouring down on you, but you keep on movin'
through
And it's pouring down on you, the suns gone and your
feelin' blue
And there you are standing all alone in the rain

And the rain comes pouring down
Yeah yeah
