My mama said
I can't see you no more
Cause we don't know
What love really means

She says we can't get married
For three years or more
Cause we're only in our teens

[CHORUS]

Oh, no, we're not too young
Young to get married
Not too young
Young to get married
What kind of difference
Can a few years make
I gotta have you now
Or my heart will break
Not too young, young to get married
Not too young, young to get married
I couldn't love you more
Than I could today

I remember when I brought you home
I remember what my mama said
When I told her that I loved you so
She told me I was out of my head

[Repeat CHORUS]

I'll love you 'til the day I die
Wanna spend every day with you
Nobody knows that they make me cry
When they carry on like they do

[Repeat CHORUS]

Not too young, young to be married
Not too young, young to be married
Not too young, young to be married
Not too young, young to be married...
