Well I told my baby
I said baby, I know where you been
Well, I know who you are
And what league you played in?

You wanna ramble
To the break of dawn
You wanna ramble
To the break of dawn
You wanna ramble
To the break of dawn

Well, the night is so empty
So quit and still
For only fifteen hundred dollars
You can have anybody killed

You wanna ramble
To the break of dawn
You wanna ramble
To the break of dawn
You wanna ramble
To the break of dawn

Well, I told my baby
Further down the line
I said, [unverified] what happens tomorrow
Is on your head, not mine?

You wanna ramble
To the break of dawn
You wanna ramble
To the break of dawn
You wanna ramble
To the break of dawn
