And nobody feels any pain
Tonight as I stand inside the rain
Everybody knows, baby's got new clothes
But lately I see her ribbons and her bows
Have fallen from her curls

As she takes just like a woman
And she aches just like a woman
And she wakes just like a woman
Ya, but she breaks just like a little girl

Queen Mary, she's my friend
Yes, I believe, I'll go see her again
And nobody has to guess that baby can't be blessed
That she sees finally that she's like all the rest
In her fog, in her amphetamine and her pearls

As she takes just like a woman
And she wakes just like a woman
And she aches just like a woman
But she breaks just like a little girl

It was raining from the first
And I was dying there of thirst, so I came in here
And your long time curse hurts
But what's worse, is this pain in here
I can't stay in here, ain't it clear well that I, I just don't fit

Yes, I believe, it's time for us to quit
And now when we meet again, introduced as friends
Please don't let on that you knew me when I was hungry and it was your world

You take just like a woman
And you ache just like a woman
And you make love just like a woman
But you break just like a little girl
