Here's to you and all our friends
May God protect us until the very end
All the places that we go
And everybody that we know

And every single living thing
The earth, the sky, the wind, the sea

Oh, I'm in love with you tonight
Yeah, I'm in love with life tonight
And you know it feels alright

So let it rain, let it rain
So let it rain, let it rain

So here's to you and all our friends
May God protect us, until the very end

I'm in love with you tonight
I'm in love with life tonight
And you know I think that's right

So let it rain, let it rain
So let it rain, let it rain
