Some things wrong
She was lying on the bed
Crying when I walked in and said
You look like your tired.
She said I feel it,
I felt this way long time
And now she's gone.

Later on
I would lie by her heart,
Silent but awake in the dark,
The 2 of us staring
I thought I lost her
I loved her for a long time,
And now she's gone.

It got so hard. Oh
It gets so hard.

There's a feeling inside
That can't be described.
Not a question of death,
Nor a matter of life.
More a slow breaking down,
Like emotional rust.
It's an empty despair
That will turn things to dust.

Now Baby, Baby,
The whole world dies,
So we die slowly.

Darlin, Darlin,
Oh I see you cry,
So I cry with you too.

Comin home,
I'd been bothered by the phone,
Leaving her alone when it rang,
But she never answered.

O but I watched her,

Her face shown like an angel,
How it shun.

It got so hard. Oh
It gets so hard.

There's this feeling inside
That can't be described.
It's not a question of death,
Nor a matter of life.
More a slow breaking down,
Like emotional rust.
It's an empty despair
That will turn things to dust.

Now Baby, Baby,
The whole world dies,
So we die slowly.

Darlin, Darlin,
Oh I see you cry,
So I cry with you too.

Baby, Baby,
The whole world dies,
So we die slowly.

Darlin, Darlin,
Oh I see cry,
So I cry with you.

Baby, Baby,
The whole world dies,
So we die slowly.

Darlin, Darlin,
Oh I see you cry,
So I cry with you too.

Too...
