words and music: Steven Rhodes

Drivin in my car

Drivin but I don't know where I'm goin but I know I'm going far

Far away

Far from the city of the lights down by the bay

Gonna find me a better place

I want to throw away this costume and take this mask off my face

I've been livin a lie

Livin but I don't know who I am and for what and for why

Why'm I here

Who knows why we're here and I sure don't but oh?

Dear, I'll never be comin round here again

This is my last song to you, I break all ties

And when I leave things behind, I don't look back

And I don't face the facts

Now ahead

I see a new city of lights and new, better, happier nights

I see places

Nothing that I fear and once again I say

Chorus
