So long Rastafari call you,
So long!
So long Rastafari call you,
So long!
And now the enemies surround you,
Trying to devour you.
So long Rastafari call you,
So long!

So long Nyabinghi warn you,
So long!
So long Nyabinghi warn you,
So long!
For the enemies surround you,
Trying to devour you.
So long Nyabinghi warn you
So long!

So very long! So very long!
So very long! So very long!

So long Nyabinghi yanting you,
So long!
So long Nyabinghi yanting you,
So long!
For the enemies surround you
Trying to devour you,
So long Rastafari call you
So long!
