This letter is out for you today
Wrote all the sorrow out of myself
Wrote all my sorrow far away
It's been a pity far too long

I see you dance in angry ways
You're screaming at the pearl in your shell
Forget the embryo, yourself, it's been a pity far too long

Falling, I'm crawling inside
Where is it you're going
I'm getting stronger every day
Learn to live my life alone these days
And I am falling down

I raise my head and start to plead
My fingers stretch and then I feel it rise inside of me

That feeling that I used to dream
I'm a living loveturned laserbeam

Falling, I'm crawling inside
Where is it you're going
I'm getting stronger every day
Learn to live my life alone these days

And I am Falling...

Hurting, I'm flirting inside
Where is it you're going
I'm getting stronger every day
Learn to fuck myself alone these days
And I am falling down
And I am falling down
And I am falling...
