I see a broken girl,
Living in a broken world
With the stars at her feet
I can see her loosing hope.
Go to speak but then you choke
I wish that you could see

Theirs more to life
Then what you see right now
Theirs nothing I won't do
If it means saving you.
Theirs more to life
Then what you see right now
Theirs nothing I won't do
If it means saving you.

Now I have a secret
I've been hiding
I'm afraid you won't look at me the same.
As for that secret
I'm falling for you.

I just hope things never change.
Your so beautiful and sweet
The cutest girl that I'll ever meet.
I love the peerson that you are.

I pray that I can help you now
I know it's dark, and it hurts like hell
But I'll be there no matter where you are

Theirs more to life
Then what you see right now
Theirs nothing I won't do
If it means saving you.
Theirs more to life
Then what you see right now
Theirs nothing I won't do
If it means saving you.
