I just turned my head, somebody stole my girl
I just turned my head, somebody stole my girl
I just closed my eyes, lost sight of the world
I meant to take a two weeks vacation, made a mistake
by staying four
I meant to take a two weeks vacation, made a mistake
by staying four
Well when I got home one mornin', somebody had changed the lock on my front door
Oh yeah
That's why I get up early every mornin', as strange as it may seem Well I get up early every mornin', as strange as it may seem Well you know ain't nothing coming to a sleeper
Nothing but a dream
