Well, you can send me a telegram, call me on the phone I jump on the highest mountain, before I let you come back home You've got bad intentions baby,
woman, you ain't got the right thing to mine

Yeah, you left me for the last time,
woman, you know I ain't lyin'

Well, you can make my front bell, knock on my back door Don't come in this house,
'cause you don't live here no more
You've got bad intentions baby,

Yeah, you left me for the last time,
woman, you know I ain't lyin'

You can holler, cry and scream, till your face turn blue Get on your knees and crawl, woman, that won't help you

You've got bad intentions baby,
woman, you ain't got the right thing to mine

Yeah

Well, you say you can't go on living, if you can't be by my side Gonna send you a bottle of poison, please commit suicide

You've got bad intentions baby,
woman, you ain't got the right thing to mine
