Is it my imagination
Is there something you wanna say
Cause it feels so strange
When you look at me that way

And I can't deny
I see the signs
They only point one way

(chorus)
Do you feel like lovin' me
Don't let me hear you say
If you feel like lovin' me
Say it now, say it now, say my name
Cause I'm waiting, I'm waiting, I'm waiting for you
So tell me you want me the way I want you

Wanna feel your kiss upon my lips
As sweet as any love
Raining down on me
Like honey from above, yeah

And I don't know why
But every time
This voice inside me says

(chorus)

Who's walked down the mountain
They're afraid to fall
But with you I hear the music
And it fills my soul

I'm waiting for you
I'm waiting for you
I'm waiting for you

(chorus ad lib)
