I would call you on the phone if I knew, you weren't home, you say you love me but you don't, why can't I just leave you alone?
Pretend I don't,
you know I see,
everything you do takes over me, say things you want to hear but doesn't mean much, cause you know I don't want to be alone, you know I don't want to be alone,

another time another day,
we could get it right,
another place another way,
I believe that,
just hold on just be strong, cause I don't want to leave you alone, don't get me wrong you know I'm not afraid, it just seems its their way, so many things you know we never say, I can't wait another day, there's something about the way you look at me, every time you act so differently, I got to be dreamful cause that's what we need,

and you know,

I don't want to be alone, yeah you know I don't want to be alone,

another time another day,
we could get it right,
another place another way,
I believe that,
just hold on just be strong,
cause I don't want to leave you,

I never want to hear you say good bye, I never ever want to see you cry, dreaming of you is so sweet and true, my world is nothing without you, you're my soul mate,

don't hesitate,
its been a mistake,
cant stop this heartache, please stop this heartache,

another time another day,
we could get it right,
another place another way,
I believe that,
just hold on just be strong,
cause I don't want to leave you,

just hold on just be strong,
I don't want to be alone,
yeah you know,
I don't want to be alone
