Holding back the tide
Has never been your best side
Screamin' down the highway
Just to make a holiday

But you want me to love you
For everything you're not
Standin' miles above you down here baby
Coz of everything you've got

The sun is comin' through your window but never stays for long
The sun is hanging on your pillow and put it where it dont belong

But you want me to love you
For everythin' you're not Standing miles aove you down here baby

Coz of everything you've got

But you want me to love you, love you, love you baby
now,
Coz of everything you've got Standing miles above you, round you, size me down here, now

For everything you're not
Standin' miles above you down here baby
Coz of everything you've got

now,
Coz of everything you've got
Standing miles above you, bove you down here baby
