Blue Autumn, falling leaves with red and gold.
Pretty colors, I am told.
But I only see only shades of blue,
because I'm loosing you.

Blue Autumn, there's a rainbow in the sky.
But no matter how I try,
I still see only shades of blue,
because I'm loosing you.

Such pretty colors I am told, they're for all to see.
But falling leaves of red and gold,

have all turned blue to me.

Blue Autumn, a love like yours I'll never know.
Other girls may come and go.
But I only see shades of you
and all my autumns will be blue.

Blue Autumn, a love like yours I'll never know.
Other girls may come and go.
But I only see shades of you
and all my autumns will be blue.
