C E7 Am Fmaj7 Bb C

Lonesome Suzie, never got the breaks

E7 Am G

She's always losing so she sits and cries and shakes

C E7 Am F Bb C

It's so hard just to watch her, and if I touch her

Eb Bb C Am C G C

Oh, poor Suzie, I'm wondrin' what to do

She just sits there, hoping for a friend

I don't fit here, but I may have a friend to lend

Maybe I mistook her, but I can't overlook her

Must be someone who can pull her through

E7 Am Fmaj7 Bb C

Anyone who's felt that bad could tell me what to say

E7 Am G

Even if she'd just get mad, she might be better off that way

C E7 Am

And where is all the understanding

Fmaj7 Bb C

Her problems can't be that demanding

Eb Bb C Am

Why is it she looks that way

C Gsus4 C

Every time she starts to cry?

Lonesome Suzie, I can't watch you cry no longer

If you can use me until you feel a little stronger

I guess just watching you has made me lonesome too

Why don't we get together,

Dm7 G7 C

What else can we do?
