From heaven to heartache is such a long way to go
From holding an angel to onliness in her soul
I said some things that I didn't mean to say
And then like a fool I turned and just walked away

From heaven to heartache I felt my world turning blue
From heaven to heartache I learned how much I need you I'm sorry if I've made my angel cry and if I ever get back in

From heartache to heaven I'll never leave again

(From heaven to heartache) I felt my world turning blue
(From heaven to heartache) I learned how much I need
you
I'm sorry if I've made my angel cry and if I ever get
back in
From heartache to heaven I'll never leave again
