Bobby Valentino (Talking):

You know what,
Christmas is a time where you want to be with the ones
you love.
Ya know, or even maybe the one you love.
So let me tell you all something..

Singing:

Oh yeah, I know that I've been working
Too many nights for you to be alone again
Phone calls, back and forth on emails
My boss calls, and now I'm on the road again
... The fire's burning mistletoe is in the air
I just want to be home, I don't wanna be alone
This Christmas

I can't spend another christmas without my baby
I can't take another christmas cuz girl you're my lady
I can't spend another christmas without my baby
I can't take another christmas cuz girl you're my lady

& baby I'm coming home [x2]
So baby I'm coming home

I can't wait to walk through the door baby
Just in time to stop you from being lonely
Know what you like, So I got everything you wanted
& all I wanted was you in the morning
Let's light the tree and put the presents under there
Hanging lights and candy canes everywhere
I'm happy that I came home, we don't have to be alone
This Christmas

I can't spend another christmas without my baby
I can't take another christmas cuz girl you're my lady
I can't spend another christmas without my baby
I can't take another christmas cuz girl you're my lady

& baby I'm coming home [x2]
So baby I'm coming home

Just me and you, Sipping some wine sitting by the fire, wouldn't it be nice
Just me and you, listening to music set the mood right
I know just what you like girl..
Partying with friends, celebrating this
It's christmas time again girl
You're the best present, baby you're a blessing
Girl just let it snow.

Sleigh bells ringing, and my heart is singing,
Girl to you.

I can't spend another christmas without my baby
I can't take another christmas cuz girl you're my lady
I can't spend another christmas without my baby
I can't take another christmas cuz girl you're my lady

& baby I'm coming home [x2]
So baby I'm coming home

Merry merry christmas [x3] I love you
Merry Merry christmas [x3] I love you

Sleigh bells ringing, and my heart is singing,
Girl to you.
