Swinging With The Chickens (2002)

Music: Bobby Valentino/ Lyrics: Bobby Valentino/Mimi Thebo

You know you can be certain
Although I'm fond of flirtin'
You know that I won't up and walk away
I know that you'll be mad
If you think that I've been bad
But I'm swingin' with the chickens in the hay

Now you know I wake up crowing
And you should be knowing
Crowing is the way I'n gonna stay
Now there ain't nothing hatchin'
It's just the ground I'm scratchin'
Swingin' with the chickens in the hay

I'm swinging with the chickens
Swinging with the chickens in the hay
I'm swinging with the chickens
But that don't mean that I've got eggs to lay

I'll be home before the cattle
You'll hear the front door rattle
Leave the light on if you want to play
I'm coming home to nest
With the chick I dig the best
Not swingin' with the chickens in the hay
Swingin' with the chickens in the hay
