[Verse 1]

Say baby what's your story

You got the goods it's plain to see

The kind that a keep a brother on his knees

And I'm so curious

After the club hang out with me

Valentino is sure to please

For now let's have an apple martini

And get to know each other

[Chorus]

Oh ma tell me

How did you get that in those jeans

The way you poppin it is killing me

Look over here come follow me

Tell me

How did you get that in those jeans

The way you dropping it is killing me

I'll meet you in the V.I.P

[Verse 2]

When you sizzling wanna lay you on the floor

I'm a bad boy just thought I'd let you know

These are the thoughts running through my mind

Cause I'm so curious yeah

Couple more shots and we out the door

Speed off in the coupe cause there's more in store

Can't wait till I pull in my driveway girl
Can tell by now I want you

[Hook]

You's a sexy thang
Boo what's your name
Cause you're the finest thang that's walked in the club
Your girls they don't compare
To you can't help but stare
At you. . . lets make a toast to the good life
