One more time I let it go
One more time again
One more time just one more time
One more time again
Everybody!
One more time I let it go (put your hands up)
One more time again (what I want, what I want)
One more time, just one more time (this is what we're told)
One more time (here we go)
We're on the last call for alcohol tonight,
But we're gonna keep this party,
Rocking till we see the light,
We don't wanna have no trouble,
We just came to loose control,
For one more time I just came to let it go
One more time again
Eh ah oh eh ah x3
If I get high on friday will saturday still be my day,
A pop champagne might drown me,
Picking on a barlike bar maid
Drink that stuff at the party cause we just wanna party
Jump in the pool with the pretty girl and hope thats
she's gonna like me cause
We're on the last call for alcohol tonight,
We're gonna keep this party rocking till we see the light
We doon't wanna have no trouble we just came to loose control
One more time I just came to let it go
One more time I let it go
One more time again
One more time just one more time
One more time again
One more time I let it go (put your hands up)
One more time again (come on)
One more time I let it go (this is what we told)
One more time again (here we go)
One more time again (here we go)
One more time again ...
Eh ah oh eh ah x3
One more time I just came wanna let it go.
One more time again ...
