I just finished putting my seventh drink away
A week now since her death and a drink for every day
Soon it will be fifty, I won't be worrying about ulcers
No longer do I dream and my mind is far away
I'm thinking like an animal, almost unconsciously
Soon I'll be nocturnal and knocking over your garbage
And I'll walk and I'll find solace
And the sun will shine upon me
Like a mother keep me warm
And my pulse goes
Hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut
Hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut
I see hallucinations of figures like yourself
I feel like I'm on acid and you're alive and well
Hope you get well soon wait 'til you see your new grandson
And we'll walk and we'll part in a nice way
Because I don't think I was ready
When you left so suddenly
And if I could just set this date up
It would out my mind at ease

To say the things I had failed to say

And my pulse would

Hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut

Hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut

Dirty water, dirty water, dirty water

(Drink it all down, smell the surprise)

Dirty water, dirty water, dirty water

(Drink it all down, smell the surprise)

Drink it all down, smell the surprise

(Dirty water, dirty water, dirty water)

Drink it all down, smell the surprise

I just finished putting my fiftieth drink away

I think, I've been patient and waiting for this day

I'll have another before I go into the party

I think, I've been patient in waiting for this day

After putting my fiftieth drink away

Forget the girl and take the drink like a real man

And I walked and I found solace

And the sun it shined upon me

Like a mother kept me warm

And I walked and I found solace

And the sun it shined upon me

Like a mother kept me warm

And my pulse goes

Hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut

Hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut

Hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut

And the sun it shined upon me

Like a mother kept me warm

The sun it shined upon me

Like a mother kept me warm

The sun it shined upon me

Like a mother kept me warm

And the sun it shined upon me

Like a mother kept me warm
