As I enter the basement I live in,
I notice that something is wrong.
The smell from the refrigerator
Has grown tremendously strong.
The Ooze has merged with the yoghurt.
Add Cauliflower and you have got a brain.
The smell grow so vicious,
I think I am going insane.
Is it alive? Is it ALIVE? No way!
Yet it slides slowly towards me and

Adresses me in a blubbly way.

[Beast:] Come to me love!
[Man:] What do you want? What do you want?!
[Beast:] With your feet and my mind,
We will conquer the world in a day.
Come to me, love! Come to me love!
[Man:] No way!
[Beast:] Yes way! We are marching to Rome!
