R.sambora

When I look at you
Youre beautiful
There comes a time in someones life
When you find things that matter
And every time we touch
The love runs deep
We realize it's our to keep
And that's all that really matters.
Youll always be my sweet addiction
In this life my saving grace
Youre all that really matters
You know it's true
Aint no me without you.
When you're in the dark
Baby don't despair
Im just a spark away
I will be there
And that's all that matters.
Youll always be my sweet addiction
In this life my saving grace
Youre all that really matters
You know it's true
Aint no me without you.
Well share our lives together
Yes our flame burns on forever
And at the final curtain call
We can say we did it all.
Solo
Youll always be my sweet addiction
In this life my saving grace
Youre all that really matters
You know it's true
Aint no me without you.
And when we turns to dust
And we fly away
There'll be a light stil burning bright
And that's all that really matters.
