I just want all those modern romances
Always being in love
When any girl smiled at me I went wild at the touch of her clothes
Then bang it's off before I know it
Poor broken hearted me

Better think twice before falling in love again
Better think twice before falling in love

Jackie's all alone in her room with the TV on
And she's crying, crying
Wondering about how her and Joey been getting along
All this lying, lying Tell her this, tell her that
Where's these lies gonna end Things would be much better if her and Joey just stayed friends

Better think twice before falling in love again
Better think twice before falling in love

What's in it for you?
He's trying to shoot you down
Long hot summer nights
Go out now and find that girl and hold her tight
Like she's the only girl in the world

You better think twice
Better think twice before falling in love again
Better think twice before falling in love
Better think twice before falling in love again
Better think twice before falling in love
