What's the world coming to
Where are we all running to
Not all our dreams are coming true
We can't let it break us

In two hearts that beat as one
Can't let the clouds cover the sun
If I'm ramblin', I'm guilty
Of wearing my heart on my sleeve

When it hurts
(Breathe)
When it burns
(Breathe)
The feeling inside you
Is feeling like I do
Take a breath
(Breathe)
Let it out
(Breathe)
Just close your eyes
Don't hold it inside you
Breathe

She said, baby, you look down tonight
There's something wrong and that ain't right
I hear you talking in your sleep
I want to dive in your dreams

And wrap my loving arms around you
Protect you when the waves crash down on you
When you're lost and you're scared
I'll be the air

When it hurts
(Breathe)
When it burns
(Breathe)
The feeling inside you
Is feeling like I do
Take a breath
(Breathe)

Let it out
(Breathe)
Just close your eyes
Don't hold it inside you
Breathe

When you give and you take
And it feels like something breaks
It's alright, breathe

When it hurts
When you doubt
When it burns
Let it out
When you give
When you love
When you live
When you touch
If all that we've got is each other
Than all that we got is a lot

When it hurts
(Breathe)
When it burns
(Breathe)
The feeling inside you
Is feeling like I do
Take a breathe
(Breathe)
Let it out
(Breathe)
Just close your eyes
Don't hold it inside you
Breathe
Just breathe
Breathe
Just breathe
