We've been through this all before a thousand times Come on, come on, come on, tell me what's on your mind

Doesn't matter, baby, what I say
It all amounts to nothing anyway

When push comes to shove, it's never enough
It always comes down to something

How could I live? Why would I try?
I've been learning to live without you but that's a lot
No giving in or saying goodbye
Seems there's always something but all that's ever left
is nothing
(All that's ever left is nothing)

I thought I saw you reach out, thought I saw you try Waiting here for something, nothing is all I find Kneeling at your altar, standing on the shore
I'm waiting out, now listen, I'm outside your door

When push comes to shove, it's never enough
It always comes down to something

How could I live? Why would I try?
I've been learning to live without you but that's a lot
No giving in or saying goodbye
Seems there's always something but all that's ever left
is nothing

I won't give up
I won't give up... no
'Cause you know I won't let you down

How could I live? Why would I try?
I could learn to live without you but I would die
No giving in or saying goodbye
Seems there's always something but all that's ever left
is nothing
Why would I try?
I've been learning to live without you but that's lot
No giving in or saying goodbye

Seems there's always something but all that's ever left
is nothing

I won't give up
I won't give up... no
'Cause you know I won't let you down
You know I won't let you down
You know I won't let you down
