[LaReece]

Guess who's back. [Repeat 7x]

[Intro: Krayzie Bone]

[Repeat 2x]

Who the thugs with the wickedest rhymes

Wickedest rhymes, wickedest rhymes

[Chorus: Krayzie Bone & LaReece]

[Repeat 4x]

Bone Thugs back and your gonna be in trouble

[Verse 1: Krayzie Bone]

We keep it goin' get it for the Mid West

Krayzie, Layzie, Bizzy, Wish

We can't forget about Flesh

We finna drop another bomb

We figure they can't take another rhyme

Come back off and get um with another platinum rythm

and they won't fuck in the lab

They want to try to keep up so come on

Thirty million sold and that I'll just stay at that now what about that

Listen to the thuggish

And listen to every other rapper rap about who that come from

Talkin' Bone fell off

Say what they bust just like us

They ain't even knowin' were it came from like richer niggas

They ain't going to give it to us so we gon take it

We just come to tell you that Bone Thugs back

And we still creepin'

[Chorus: Krayzie Bone & Lareece]

[Repeat 4x]

Bone Thugs back and your gonna be in trouble

[LaReece]

Guess who's back. [Repeat 7x]

[Verse 2: Wish Bone]

Now tell me how many thugs
Get down like us
And still harmonize like the great Temptations
Sit back look back
Came in the game
Came right back (back) With no hesitation
Put up yo money honey what ever ya got we won't lose
Put up or shut up
Get slapped in front of all your dogs
And all your dudes
Cause I'm a smarter thug all ways wanted to be a thug
What do you think
Do you think he gon do something
Don't let the money fool you
Don't let the money do you
Cause it ain't really about nothin' (nothin')
Its just so much they gon let in Toss that we gon show you who you are messin' with That's why I started a war in this rap game
You got to hit hard
And let them now who they dealin' with

[LaReece]

Guess who's back. [Repeat 7x]

[Krayzie Bone & Lareece]

Bone Thugs back and your gonna be in trouble

[Krayzie Bone]

[Repeat 4x]

Who the thugs with the wickedest rhymes
Wickedest rhymes, wickedest rhymes

[Verse 3: Layzie Bone]

When we meet on the concrete jungle
We can do it
We can rumble
Take it to the streets
And let the whole world crumble
All I ever seen was heavy smoke in the air
Bustin' heavy shots
They just don't care
If you don't then I'm goin to get all tha bloodiness
Niggas want peace but I know they all gon test us
The thugs commin' back to bring the thug essence
Thugs commin' back to bring back the thug blessins
For the lord where doin' to fight the wind
Imma fight to get them all hyped again
Tell the Bone Thug story again

If a nigga still hatin' a pipe again
Like I did before creep creep and I came Just four more niggas down for there thang
Never been afraid to let my nuts hang How to you think Bone Thug made it to the top of the game nigga

[Chorus]

[Verse 4: Bizzy Bone]
Fully automatic loaded
Remy Martin fill my potion
Coastin' on freeways keep rollin' till we hit the ocean
Motion on freeways bout to bustin on niggas bostion
Popi Cholos solo with my pistol so smokin'
Pullin' pop up bitch nigga if you talkin'
Token', tortin' with my pistol
Got you people open
These niggas is enemys
Shots up in they body
Never was friend to me
Pass me the Hennessey
Hey

[Krayzie Bone & Lareece]
Bone Thugs back and your gonna be in trouble

[Krayzie Bone]
[Repeat 4x] Who the thugs with the wickedest rhymes, wickedest rhymes, wickedest rhymes. [Repeat till the end]
