"If I Fall"

Indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do

I said, indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do

With the everyday bullshit I be goin' thru
I be hopin' just to make it thru another day
Lookin' for another way
To live my life in peace, get away

I stay high with my gun, paranoid so if they come
Then I dump, dump, dump
That's really all that I got for ya
This life is crazy, I might go crazy, if I'm down

Don't let 'em break me, so I stop and I pray to God
Oh Lord, forgive me for my worldly lies
And help me thru this pain of mine
Pray and I pray, I pray

That I can just see the light
And fly away, away, away, away
But I know, I can call on You when I'm all alone
Whenever I fall, I fall, I fall

Indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do

I said, indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do

Situations got me thinkin' was it worth this
And then I got to thinkin' 'cause I love this Stay down, it'll work itself in time
Don't be misled by these troubles in life

Everybody wants that miracle

Just so far from where will it go
If it's meant to be then it'll come for sure, for sure
And I know, I know, it gets hard sometimes

But don't you give up, it's gonna be better times
If you believe, just believe
It's no tellin' what you'll receive
Livin' proof, look at me, look at me, look at me

And ya gotta love this gift that we been blessed with, I do
Number one and can't nobody touch this, ya know
Gotta hit my knees and let Him know
I thank You, without You, where would I be, where would I go

Indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do

I said, indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do

Ain't no tellin' what this life bound to bring
One day ya here, the next day ya gone
That's why I try to live right
Don't wanna live wrong

Ain't no guarantee if ya gone make it home
What go around come around
Everybody know that it's real when you speakin' the kharma
So do unto others like you wanna be done
Like Mary J, no more drama

I'm a paper chaser, believe that
On the ground where I plant my feet at
If it's not about money I don't need that You can keep that gossip, can't you see that

Stay locked on my mission
'Cause most of these niggaz in the world
Ain't thinkin' 'bout the future, young black entrepreneur
And I'm out to get more, so baby open the door

They gotta let me in, 'cause again and again
I done said that I was gone get dollars
If it's not about cheese, I'll holla
Fuckin' with a nigga that'a way too polished

If the road get rough, I'ma stand my ground
Keep my faith and call on the Lord
And I don't have to worry no more
Even if I fall

Indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do

I said, indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do

I'ma be a soldier, ready for gunshots
For the day I see Jehovah
You think you know us
Nigga though you don't so

Don't think that I made it just 'cause crossroads
Little measly Grammy ain't did nothin' for my family
No artist is that fast and scared to tell the truth
And the hardest niggas I see is raisin' they youth

Little food for thought since all of y'all bullshittin', admit it
You say anything uplifting, it'll be distance
To the kids that used to listen to ya
[Incomprehensible]
Anglo-saxon essence of abuse you're better alive

County or prison met solid kitchen
Better survive in your own trinity, prison
Infinity's waitin' on ya, baby
Swallow your pride and maybe you'll ride

Indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do

I said, indeed if I fall, every time I'm fallin', fallin'
There's no doubt, God helps me rise
That He do, that He do
