Give me an answer, I'm waiting for you
My nights are so lonely that I just can't make it through
I look out of my window, for maybe you will come
Forgive
Me my love, oh yes I know, I was wrong

I still do remember the night I went away
What have I done, that our love went astray
I'm fighting just like a Samurai to win back your love
And the light that's in your eyes

Longing for you is like longing for life
What devil has taken you away from me
Longing for you is like longing for life
But my fight's been a fight against a lie

You take no excuses and your voice's cold as ice
I know now it's too late for me, now I have to pay the Price I'm crying and I don't know what to do
Like slaves long for freedom, I'm longing for you

Longing for you is like longing for life
What devil has taken you away from me
Longing for you is like longing for life
But my fight's been a fight against a lie

Longing for you is like longing for life
What devil has taken you away from me
Longing for you is like longing for life
But my fight's been a fight against a lie
