Everywhere I'm going I see you far away from me
And anyway I tried so hard to tell you how I feel
My memories take me away to a land - I call the zoo
For like a tiger in a cage I am caught up in you

You're hiding in my dreams, I can't free my brain
You don't know, what you should know

(No more!) No more cold and lonely nights
(No more!) You make me feel like dynamite
(No more!) No more's the words makin' you stay

(No more!) No more can I hold it back
(No more!) Your love is like a heart attack
(No more!) No more's the words makin' you stay

Yesterday I felt so sad - what can I do,
For it's still the same old thing, breaking us in two
Your love is like a drug in me, it's making me blind
So many times I tried so hard to get you out of my mind

You're hiding in my dreams, I can't free my brain
You don't know, what you should know

(No more!) No more cold and lonely nights
(No more!) You make me feel like dynamite
(No more!) No more's the words makin' you stay

(No more!) No more can I hold it back
(No more!) Your love is like a heart attack
(No more!) No more's the words makin' you stay

You're hiding in my dreams, I can't free my brain
You don't know, what you should know

(No more!) No more cold and lonely nights
(No more!) You make me feel like dynamite
(No more!) No more's the words makin' you stay

(No more!) No more can I hold it back
(No more!) Your love is like a heart attack
(No more!) No more's the words makin' you stay
