Your feelings - and memories
Are just like broken glass
Your tears flow - like rivers
And birds have lost their songs

No words - to comfort you
They taste like cheap champagne
Don't ever loose your faith in love
And you will smile again - 'cause

CHORUS
Somebody's waiting - for you
Even if your heart is bleeding
Somebody's waiting - for you
To give you all you're dreaming of

Rain's falling - all over you
It's pounding on your wounds
Sun's hiding - before your eyes
It cuts your heart in two

Some wounds get deeper and deeper
And time won't ease your pain
Just trust in love - sometimes it hurts
Cause love will never change
