Well I don't miss your Scarlet kiss
'cause I put you on my drop dead list
I couldn't stand it no longer
You wrapped your little lies so fine
Like in a Hitchcock storyline where the good guy's always stronger

Girl I've seen that movie
Didn't know you wrote the script

Bad girl - you're no good
'cause you're too much Hollywood
Oh - you're just smoke without a fire
Bad girl - this time
I won't waste my Valentine
Oh - I was hungry with desire

I was badly cast in your love affair
I had the minor role of Mr. Unaware
The start of shooting was dynamite
But the happy end got out of sight
and out of copyright

Based on the novel of a bad girl
I just take this Golden Globe for me yeah

Bad girl - you're no good
'cause you're too much Hollywood
Oh - you're just smoke without a fire
Bad girl - this time
I won't waste my Valentine
Oh - I was hungry with desire

All you did and said is still on screen in my head
But finally my heart decided
I don't watch that movie anymore
Like I did before - no
