Who'll be a beggar and who'll be a queen
Who'll be a coward and who a Marine

Who'll be a poor man and who a millionaire
Who'll be a man in despair

Under blue skies - we all play the game
But in God's eyes - we are all the same

Who'll be a Nazi and who'll be a Jew
Who'll be a White man and who'll die like a Sioux

Who'll be the president of the US of A
Who'll be a sinner or saint - I just say

Under blue skies - we all live in chains
But in God's eyes - we remain the same
