Visit "Double Birth" on MotoLyrics.com

They
They never saw me when I was down
You never called me when I was out I know because there was no song
no words
no lovers left on my machine so mean

All my friends were trying to kick
Because they made their mothers sick
All along they couldn't see how much their lives affected me

Oh no
I couldn't tell the truth
I was better in my youth
But now I see I haven't changed
The mirror says I've stayed the same

(double birth double life double life double birth double life)

You
You took me home
You said, "be alone"
was right for me

They Gave me a robe
and then a crown
