Anna was bad
Anna was bad but Anna was real good to me
Everyone was phony just like a fad
But Anna had a dream, you see
So I ran up a letter on paper made from a tree
Then I sealed it with a tear that ran away from the sea

Anna where is your Nightmare
With you I'd spend the Night there
It's only Anna and her dream I was desperate to see
I'd cut off my eye if Only I could see you
Cut off my hair if only I could see you...

If I could have Anna
Fly to HAVANA

Anna was bad but Anna was real good to me
Everyone was phony just like a fad
But Anna had a dream, you see

It's only Anna and her dream I was desperate to see
