Stay [Duett with Pierre Cosso]

You are my life you are my only one desire you're the air that I breath tonight won't you stay here beside me stay

When I see you there's a glow from the stars above guess they know that I'm so in love yes I'll stay here beside you stay

Day after day (after day) feeling love in the evening sun till you came and you were the one (yes you are) now I'll stay here beside you stay

Well remembered dreams of a foolish parade didn't need to persuade you hungry for a smile in the morning moonlight that'll be alright with you take my hand

All I can do is to dream of you all way through close my eyes all I see is you
yes I'll stay here beside you stay

Stay by my side you're the air that I breath tonight all I want is to hold you tight yes I'll stay here beside you stay forever - here we'll stay tonight here we'll stay

Just a friend

When we met, you made me feel so good but I loved somebody else and thought I always would talked and laughed together, but you were only

Just a friend, an inspiration just a friend, oh what confusion in my heart

Did you know about the look of that love you're like the waves in the sea, you're always close to me

stored my heart away, now you're no longer

just a friend, oh what confusion in my heart

As just good friends our story ends a loveaffair is in the air we' ll touch the sky just you and I one love forever, will stay together one love forever, forever with you

In my dreams there'll be no lonely nights with you beside me to stay, I love do other ways

Stored my heart away, now you're no longer

just a friend, oh what confusion in my heart

we' ll touch the sky just you and I
one love forever, will stay together
one love forever, forever with you

just a friend, oh what confusion in my heart

just a friend, oh what confusion in my heart

It's goodbye

No matter what we say, no matter what we do don't wanna cry today, don't wanna feel so good I'm gonna dance all night and sing along as well You'd better treat me right, start acting like a man, a man

When I was just sixteen, I didn't have a friend when I turned seventeen, my heart was on the moon now that I'm just eighteen, I'm gonna hit the town I wanna have some fun, for me no turning round, round

Just be contender to be with you and every night my love is really true your arms are waiting so good and strong my heart is beating, beating like a gong something's missing, I don't know why why don't you be - like you before were like I feel it's goodbye - it's, I feel it's goodbye -
it's goodbye

Love is a tender trick, I'll never find a guy it's been a lovely dream, like silding right a stream and than you touch the ground, and as you come on down there's nothing you can do, you find yourself alone, alone

Just be contender to be with you
my heart is beating, beating like a gong
something's missing, I don't know why
like I feel it's goodbye - it's, I feel it's goodbye yes I feel it's goodbye - I feel it's goodbye

I feel it's goodbye - it's, I feel it's goodbye

No tears anymore

Where do I go from here who wants an easy chance shoulder to cry upon nights but go on, on and on I'm all alone tonight no one to care inside yesterday's far away and doom is here to stay

No, no

No tears anymore

and I can't love you uhhh I love you can't love you no more

I've got no tears anymore

and I can't love you uhhh I love you

can't love you no more

Here I go on my way I'm not afraid to say

I'm leavin' you for sure I'm walking out the door

No, no

can't love you no more

can't love you no more

I'm moving out with the sun

I'm riding high with the wind moving out, moving out

No, no

and I can't love you uhhh I love you

can't love you no more

can't love you no more

Love you too much

Walking down the road last night got to thinking what you said said you want to set me free said you want to let me be Baby, baby, what will I do now Round and round inside my mind pictures forming with no sound I can see you over there I can see you walk away

Oh, what will I do now
Oh, what can I do now

Now - turn and walk away you won't hear me say love you too much, love you too much oh - that was yesterday

Baby, love is not a game yes, we're really both to blame it's no good to try and pretend that our love will never end

Now - I turn and walk away
you won't hear me say
love you too much, love you too much

and oh - what can I do now

Rhapsody

Rain is falling down, coming down on this lonely town from my window I look around, at the night

A million dollars for my emotions all my own a sentimental revolution tonight, tonight, tonight

Revolving round at the speed of the sound, while we dance to the rhapsody
a spectacular rhapsody, a salvation for you and me tentacles groping and somebody's smoking we dance to the rhapsody
a spectacular rhapsody, a salvation for you and me

Spinning, spinning round I'm falling slowly to the ground
turning in a spin I'm trying hard to catch the wind a spiral, moving, walking, spiral, laughing, sleeping, spiral

Smile behind the wheel in the emptiness that I feel I can't see you becoming real, in the night a million lights for my confusion all my own a simple easy absolution tonight, tonight, tonight

a spectacular rhapsody, a salvation for you and me tentacles groping and someboby's smoking we dance
a spectacular rhapsody, a salvation for you and me

turning in a spin I'm trying hard to catch the wind
a spiral, moving, walking, spiral, laughing, sleeping,

a spectacular rhapsody, a salvation for you and me
tentacles groping and someboby's smoking we dance
a spectacular rhapsody, a salvation for you and me

Revolving round at the speed of the sound, while we
a spectacular rhapsody, a salvation for you and me

Nighttime

I belong to the nighttime sleep late in the morning eat breakfast while in bed

I won't answer the phone I want to be alone stretching me on my pillow Someone's knocking on my door pretend that I'm sleeping so they leave me alone

The world is waking around me I don't feel like moving for the rest of the day

Yes the nighttime, I love the nighttime, adore the nighttime
ohh - only in nighttime do I feel allright

Pretty baby won't you come with me all night long let me tell you how it's gonna be

pretty baby won't you come with me all night long pretty baby you're mine tonight pretty baby love me tonight pretty baby I'll give you a kiss

I belong to the nighttime I'm dancing till morning with you by my side

If I'm watching the sunrise I'm looking at blue skys just I ask you why me

eat breakfast while in bed

for the rest of the day

nighttime

Pretty baby won't you come with me all night long
pretty baby won't you come with me all night long
pretty baby you're mine tonight
