I look across the water
A picture comes to mind
Of days when we were wiser
Now washed up with the tide.
Now I miss you so
Now I miss you so!
I feel the wind around me
Certain it calls my name
The whispered way that you did
Now drowned out by the rain.
Now I miss you so
Boy I miss you so!
(Chorus)
Take me back to waters and let me ride the wind
If it's all that I can have to love you once again.
Let me have illusions
They're keeping me alive
If it's all that I can have
I'll love you in my mind.
Fly with broken wings!
Feel like a desperado
Worn-out from the run
Crossing every border
To find out that you're gone.
Now I miss you so
Boy I miss you so!
(Chorus)
Fly with broken wings
