Forgive this stranger
She's got my body and soul
And I'm scared she might not let me go
Everybody is talking
But I just don't care
Everything falling into this air

I don't know what I want
But it's something I never had
And I will suffer these thorns
All over again
I must want it bad

Well it's a deep black river
It's a long way down
There's no mercy, no light, no sound
But when that full moon comes
With it's silver light
I will grab the pearl and hold on tight

I don't know what I want
But it's something I never had
And I will suffer these thorns
All over again
I must want it bad

Forgive this stranger
She's got my body and Soul
I'm scared she might not let go

I don't know what I want
But it's something I never had
And I will suffer these thorns
All over again
I must want it bad
