[CHORUS]

I'm living in two worlds
Dividing my time
Unhappy in your world
And lonesome in mine

When I'm in your world
I just pretend
That I'm really happy
Though I don't fit in

Then I drift in my world
So cold and alone
I'm living in two worlds
Where do I belong

[Repeat CHORUS]

Old friends in your world
Are new friends to me
So I can't tak part in
Your old memory

Our love shared in two worlds
That don't turn the same
We each have our own world
And neither can change

[Repeat CHORUS]
