sweet, sweet trouble
and i hope you'll understand
sweet, sweet travel
cause i never back home again
and i hope you'll understand
sweet, sweet travel
cause i never back home again

when you coming drunk at home love is not the word to explain what's going on there through this walls

sweet, sweet trouble
and i hope you'll understand
sweet, sweet travel
cause i never back home again
sweet, sweet trouble
and i hope you'll understand
sweet, sweet travel
cause i never back home again

i can stay at home no more waitng for a better time black eye maria no more and bye, bye pain

sweet, sweet travel
there is no love for me
sweet, sweet trouble
i still love you
sad but true
