Bring it down for you
Feeling like a whole new world
Roll it all over
Excuse me while I check your neck
All the pain that we can't see
Soaking up your shame again and again
Find some bodies to serve
The freedom I always abuse

Sleep through the day into the night
I hold the key, unlock the door
Up all night, dancing on the wire
We are getting higher

We're living in empire
Build it higher and higher
We're living in empire
Build it higher and higher

We're living in empire
Build it higher and higher
We're living in empire
Build it higher and higher

My enemies all know my name
Realize it, sell out your soul
Come closer, enough to bite
One step pushing down so hard
Say your prayers tonight
All you have to do is take 'em all
Gimme more or I'll take your soul
Well now, I look at your back

You can choose your victims at random
Even better than the other side, right?
Welcome to the paradise in my hands
Your heat is on

We're living in empire
Build it higher and higher
We're living in empire
Build it higher and higher

I can't get your blood back
You know who's the liar
I can't get your blood back
Fill it with desire
Roll it... Roll it over
We gotta roll it over
Roll it over

Bring it down for you
Feeling like a whole new world

We're living in empire
Build it higher and higher
We're living in empire

I can't get your blood back

Roll it over
