Came in the midnight hour when the sun was sinking low
Came with a warrior cry to let my people know
Came with a sound heartical and dread
Telling the wicked yo price is on his head

Dis you a dis
Risk you a risk
Why would you even try?
Dis you a dis
Risk you a risk
Why would you pay the price?

Buckle down two sound bway and shackle fe him sound
Burn out his amplifier run him out of town
And yes it's burning yes it's burning
Winds of change is comin
Pillars of the city wall finally been crumbling
Selector give the people what they want
Selector come with the boom shaka sound

Dis you a dis
Risk you a risk
Why would you even try?
Dis you a dis
Risk you a risk
Why would you pay the price?

Came in the midnight hour
When the sun was sinking low
Came with a warrior cry let my people know
Babylon is burning yes it's burning
The winds of change is storming
Pillars of the city wall finally been crumbling
