My girl's talkin' 'bout her hair, my girl
My girl's talkin' 'bout revolution
How to keep the sun from rising
Can't you feel the new day dawning

Keep on doing what you're doing
Here it comes, my happy ending

My girl's working in the city all day
My girl's driving fast down a highway
The radar locks on me no noises
You can take away my breathing

Tell me what you want, I'll give you
Screaming out around my house now
Get up and go down to the basement
Better get this party started

Get up and go down to the basement
Better get this party started
Get up and go down to the basement
Better get this party started

Get up and go down to the basement
Better get this party started
My girl's surfin' in the air so well
My girl's singin' a song 'bout history

How to keep the sun from rising
Can't you feel the new day dawning
Keep on doing what you're doing
Here it comes, my happy ending

Get up and go down to the basement
Better get this party started
Get up and go down to the basement
Better get this party started

Get up and go down to the basement
Better get this party started
Get up and go down to the basement
Better get this party started

Get it cracking, let's get going
Gotta get a grip, move it on yeah
Get it cracking, let's get going
Gotta get a grip, move it on yeah
