Dreadlocks natty deh pon a mission
Dreadlocks it's the time of decision
This world there's so much pollution
Mankind is headed for extinction
Physically fit well fit spiritually fit well fit
This race is not for the swift
But for the one who will endure to the end

Press along press along
Press along be strong
Why does the wicked reign so long?
All JAH children press along
Press along press along
Press along be strong
Don't care what they say you're not wrong
All JAH children press along

In this time we break down those barriers
These are the walls that separate us
JAH music comes in every town
Them that have ears let them hear
You take away the truth and justice
Pillars and foundations of reality
And force on us confusion and hypocrisy
In a world that is crumbling down
Clean up time yes JAH reveal it
Clean up time don't be left behind

Press along press along
Press along be strong
Why does the wicked reign so long?
All JAH children press along
Press along press along
Press along be strong
Don't care what they say you're not wrong
All JAH children press along

Dreadlocks the root the root the root
JAH see and know all things
The stone that builder refuse will always be the head
corner stone

Dreadlocks the root the root the root
JAH see and know all things
the stone that the bulder refuse will always be the head
corner stone
